Dear Sirs,

Ship: (Name, Flag and IMO No.)

The above named ship was detained in (port) on (date). This is a subsequent detention after the third refusal of access order in the Paris MoU region. Therefore under the provisions of section 4 of the Paris MoU, Article 16 of EU Council Directive 2009/16/EC the ship will be permanently refused further access to any port and anchorage in the Paris MoU region<sup>1</sup>, except a port and anchorage of the ship's flag State. This refusal of access will become applicable immediately after the ship is authorized to leave this port or anchorage.

Your attention is drawn to the provisions of Section 4.4 of the Paris MoU, Article 21.6 of EU Council Directive 2009/16/EC which allow access to a specific port or anchorage in the event of force majeure or overriding safety considerations, or to reduce or minimize the risk of pollution or to have deficiencies rectified, provided that adequate measures to the satisfaction of the competent authority of such State have been implemented by the company or the master of the ship to ensure safe entry.

Within one month you may lodge an appeal in court regarding this refusal of access order in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Administrative Proceedings of the Republic of Lithuania.

Yours faithfully,

---
